Federal Financial Aid Loan Information

Most students who file a FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid) are eligible to receive federal direct unsubsidized loan funding annually. The maximum loan amount you can borrow per aid year is $20,500. This loan does not require a credit check. This amount is split evenly between the terms of enrollment. Please see estimates on the following page.

6 Units per Term

Year 1	Units	Estimated Tuition Costs	-	$20,500 Federal Direct Unsubsidized Loan with 1.057% Default Fee	=	Estimated Balance
Winter	6	$10,200	-	$10,142	=	$58
Spring	6	$10,200	-	$10,142	=	$58
Total	12	$20,400	-	$20,284	=	$116

9 Units per Term

Year 1	Units	Estimated Tuition Costs	-	$20,500 Federal Direct Unsubsidized Loan with 1.057% Default Fee	=	Estimated Balance
Winter	9	$15,300	-	$10,142	=	$5,158
Spring	9	$15,300	-	$10,142	=	$5,158
Total	18	$30,600	-	$20,284	=	$10,316

If you are unable to pay the estimated balances out-of-pocket or you need additional loan funding to cover your costs (tuition or living expenses), the Federal Graduate Plus Loan and Private Loans are additional loan options that require credit approval. Please visit bit.ly/gsep-loans for more information. Students may use these loans annually to cover the additional indirect costs included in the estimated cost of attendance (COA) such as books & supplies, room & board, transportation, and personal expenses. Please visit our COA webpage for more information.

NOTE:

In year 2, when the financial aid year renews in the summer, your federal direct unsubsidized loan will be split equally between summer, fall, winter, and spring, resulting in approximately $5,071 per term after the loan fee.

Reminders:

- Cost/unit is based on the 2021-2022 academic year. The cost/unit is anticipated to increase every fall term.
- If you used a portion of the federal direct unsubsidized loan in a previous institution within the same aid year, you will not receive the full $20,500 federal direct unsubsidized loan at Pepperdine for the remainder of the aid year.
- Books and supplies are not included in this estimate.
- The federal loan fee will change every year.
- The course sequence above assumes no courses are failed, dropped or withdrawn from, and no leave of absences are taken by the student.
- Scholarships awarded will reduce the student's estimated balance per term.
- All financial aid and transcript requirements must be met before any financial aid can be applied to the student's account.
- Subject to change without notice.
